

N: Safety coach

Safety coach class invitation!

Patient safety is an important part of enhancing our ability to make healthcare remarkable for our patients. The safety coach class supports by leading participants through a review of Novant Health's safety behaviors and demonstrating how to effectively coach other team members toward compliance.

Consider the following questions for selecting team members to attend safety coach training:

- Could they be an active patient safety advocate?
- Would they be an effective peer coach?
- Could they be a positive change agent?

Who should attend?

Leaders will select team members to attend.
