

N Novant Health Survey Tools

Invitation for leadership training!

Novant Health collects data about its patients through a unique survey program. This instructor-led class explains how the data we gain from that program can help you make decisions. The data will improve the care you provide. And, the survey process will help Novant Health meet its strategic goals.

Consider the following for attending this session:

- Do you want to learn about Novant Health's patients?
- Do you want to know how Novant Health measures its progress toward achieving its strategic goals?
- Do you want to use survey data to make business decisions, improve patient care, or help Novant Health meet its strategic goals?
